

UNVEILING THE crisis C R I S I S

Awareness, Prevention, and Restoration

A free community gathering on ending human trafficking through a collaborative effort in our NC schools, churches, and neighborhoods.

Event Description

Human trafficking is not just a distant issue—it's happening here in North Carolina, often hidden in plain sight. Join us for an eye-opening morning that will move you from awareness to action. Hear from local experts and organizations working on the front lines to prevent trafficking, protect the vulnerable, and provide long-term care for survivors.

Date: Saturday, June 7 | 9 AM – 12 PM

Location: 13345 Wake Union Church Rd.
Wake Forest, NC 27587

Featuring Presentations From:

AbolitionNC | Awareness & Prevention in Schools

Meg Williams presents Bring to Light, a powerful PG-13 documentary where survivors share their stories. Learn how to recognize and respond to trafficking—and why the Hollywood version is far from reality.

The Lantern Project | Online Safety & Church Awareness

Simon Arkley will equip parents and guardians with biblically grounded wisdom and practical tools to help your kids navigate the internet safely and thrive online. Join us as we learn how to create a Bible-centered approach to digital safety in our homes.

Onehope Refuge | The Need for Long-Term Restorative Care

Jill Kearney will share firsthand stories and insight into the life-changing impact of long-term healing for women and children who've survived trafficking.

Whom Should Attend:

Parents, educators, church leaders, students, community advocates—anyone who wants to better understand the realities of trafficking and how to make a difference.
